TEA FOR ST. JOHN'S

The ladies of St. John's Guild will have a tea and dance on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Miller, 2100 Park Avenue. There will be many articles of fancy work, tables of home cooked food and candy. The dance will be in charge of Mrs. A. C. Mason, 414 S. H. Street, and Mrs. A. M. Miller. The committee in charge of the tea, Mrs. Margaret Rose and Mrs. M. J. Tamm, and the home cooking committee, Mrs. Harold Miller, Mrs. John Miller and Mrs. E. H. Edgar. Mrs. Miller will be assisted as hostess by Mrs. Harold Miller.

KNIGHTS TEM-PLAR MEET

The annual Easter custom of participating in religious services in a body will be carried out this year by the Knights Templar, number three, Knights Templar, in their acceptance of the invitation of Rev. F. E. McHugh to worship with the congregation of the Holy Trinity Episcopal church. The knights will meet this morning at the Altar at 11 o'clock and proceed to the church for services at 11 o'clock.

MRS. MAY GIVES LUNCHEON

Mrs. Charles May entertained at luncheon on Tuesday at her home on Kent Avenue, in company with Mrs. P. C. Zenger of Ohio, who is visiting here. Pink sweet peas, attractively used, formed the nucleus of the table. The menu was in the apartment. Those asked in to meet Mrs. Zenger were Mesdames S. F. Wright, A. S. Wright, A. W. Clayton, Louis McHugh, John Welling and J. G. Lewis.

RE IS RIVEN

By Agnes Davenport Bond Over Calvary being darkness. Over all the world wide. When upon the cross, our Savior, Jesus Christ, was crucified. What disaster in the temple. When the cross was in the temple. Racks were rent and earthquakes followed. Opening graves where saints were laid.

But the morning and the weeping

Soon were hushed by this strange sight—

Angels at the grave were standing,

Clothed in garments shining bright.

"Look not here for Him ye seek!"

Fear not, for He is not dead;

He is risen, and He liveth.

This is what the Angels said.

Later, in their midst, the sorrow

Struck revealed unto a few.

Saying, "I, I, I with you away,"

Alas, "I have been with you."

And there, where they then were

Alone, that they then were

That they then were alone.

Still are burning hope and comfort.

To us all, who live today.

And through all the chaotic

Seasons.

Nature's law to us is plain.

That, though things of earth may

Perish.

They'll be here, live again

Flowers that are so fair in Summer.

Crumple with the withering frost.

Yet beneath the ground they're

Sleeping.

And their beauty is not lost.

Though the leaves fall in the Autumn.

And the trees are bare and bare.

Yet we know, that in the spring-

Time.

Duds will open everywhere.

Thus shall we, our Father's child,

Be.

Though it is our fate to die,

Thus shall we live on forever,

In that glorious day and day.

What desire would overwhelm us

When our dear ones pass away?

It was no hope nor promise

Of a resurrection day.

But that comfort, that through

Love and joy to man has given,

Is proclaimed in these glad

Days.

He is risen, He is risen.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.

HE IS RISEN.
